The seventh instalment of the Fast and Furious movie franchise starring Vin Diesel has been filming in London, and as of August 2013 has been delayed due to script issues, as the script is still being rewritten. Director Justin Lin confirmed in an interview that the movie had been delayed because of script issues. During an interview with Digital Spy, when asked if it was a good thing that the film's script was delayed, he said, "it's just a lot of people having to review it, and it takes time. The script was definitely getting a rewrite at that point." China officially released the film on June 29, 2014. The film was released in China's first 24-hour cinema marathon on June 22, 2014.
